INTRODUCTION to the BOOK OF JUDE

Many false teachers, known as apostates, had risen within the church and Jude felt it was critical that he deal with this issue. He defends the Christian faith against these alarming advances of a false gospel. Jude states in verse 4 that “certain men” had “secretly slipped into” the midst of his audience. Satan’s most crippling attacks come from those who claim to know and believe the truth, but lie. They pass themselves off as leaders of the church claiming to know Christ but actually reject Him. Jude’s letter condemns these false teachers and warns his readers of the danger.

The questions and answers in this study are not necessarily all-inclusive. Your discussions may bring up more information. Just remember to always verify your conclusions with Scripture.

Jude or Judas means “Jehovah leads”. Jude claims to be the brother of James. The logical connection would be the James who wrote the book of James. This James was a half brother of Jesus so Jude is also a half brother of Jesus. The first few questions will acquaint you with Jude.

Definitions of Some False Doctrines

NOTE: These are all false doctrines or lead one to false beliefs:

Gnosticism: A system of false teaching and comes from the Greek word for knowledge. The Gnostics believe that knowledge is the way to salvation. They believe that salvation is not gained exclusively through the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus, but that truth could be gotten through mystical experiences and practices. Gnosticism also elevated women to a role of savior of mankind. Gnostics also felt that they were superior to those who did not have their knowledge.

Docetism: The belief that Jesus did not have a human body and only appeared to have died on the cross.

Postmodernism: The belief that truth and reality are created by man not by God. Something is true “if it works for you”. This is a very dominant worldview in America today.

Social Justice: Social justice promotes the redistribution of income in the name of “the common good”.

Sustainable Development: The method to organize a one world governing body. This system promotes abortion, population control, welfare, socialized medicine and social justice. It eliminates parental authority and religious liberty.

Ecumenism: A movement seeking to achieve worldwide unity among religions through greater cooperation and improved understanding.

Ecumenicalism: The merging of various religions in spiritual or theological issues to accomplish certain spiritual objectives.

Replacement Theology: The belief that the Church has replaced Israel in the New Testament.

Contemplative Prayer: Also known as “breath prayers”, “soaking prayers”, “centering prayers” or “transcendental meditation”. This is a process whereby a person becomes still and attempts to hear the voice of God. (God speaks to us through His Word, not through occult practices.)

Pluralism: The belief that all religions are equal.

Universalism: The belief that all roads lead to God.

Seeker Sensitive Church: The attempt by the church to attract people by making the church as comfortable, inviting and non-threatening as possible.
